Section 4 – Matters Related to Accountants and Financial Statements

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant’s Certifying Accountant

Effective April 16, 2008, we dismissed our principal accountant and the client-auditor relationship between us and Kabani & Company, Inc., (Kabani & Co.) ceased. On that same day, we engaged Turner, Stone & Company, L.L.P. as our principal independent accountant. We do not have an audit committee, but our Board approved changing auditors. Kabani & Co. served as our independent public accountant from July 2006 to the date of their dismissal. Kabani & Co.’s audit reports for the past two fiscal years did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, or qualification or modification as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles other than the uncertainty that the Registrant might not be able to operate as a going concern.

During the two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2007 and 2006 and in the subsequent interim periods through the date of dismissal – April 16, 2008 – there were no disagreements with Kabani & Co. on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope and procedures which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Kabani & Co. would have caused Kabani & Co. to make reference to the matter in their report.

We provided Kabani & Co. with a copy of the disclosures in this Report and requested that Kabani & Co. furnish us with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not Kabani & Co. agrees with the statements in Item 4. A copy of the letter dated April 23, 2008 furnished by Kabani & Co. in response to that request is filed as Exhibit 16 to this Current Report.
